

LEE BUILDERS, INC.
GENERAL CONTRACTOR

September 29, 2010

To: Stephen Armstrong, CPA
Anglin, Reichmann, Snellgrove & Armstrong PC

REGARDING: Reference Letter

Initially I went to Stephen Armstrong for a second opinion on strategic business tax related issues. Anglin Reichmann had been recommended to me and a website search of this company led me to Stephen, their construction specialist.

From our initial conversation I knew that Stephen was a valuable resource. Within six months, and before I formally changed accountants, Stephen had given me enough information to reclaim a substantial amount from the IRS and had answered those initial strategic questions to my satisfaction.

I've been pleased with all of our transactions and with everyone that I've met from Anglin Reichmann. Ryan Campbell deserves special mention since he is one of my primary contacts and a perfect representative of the company in knowledge and temperament.

I give my recommendation for Anglin Reichmann without reservation.

Regards,
